Rivers & Dunes

Nata, Caprivi, Divundu, Etosha, Erongo, Swakopmund, Sesriem

Our journey begins in Nata, where vast open landscapes, spectacular sunsets and the remarkable Makgadikgadi salt-pan environment introduce us to the wild beauty of Southern Africa.

From Nata, we travel towards Kasane and the mighty Chobe River, renowned for its incredible wildlife and large elephant herds. We then continue into the Caprivi, where lush vegetation, waterways and remote wilderness create a striking change of scenery.
Our adventure takes us through Divundu and onwards to Rundu, situated along the beautiful Kavango River.

From here, we head south into Etosha National Park, one of Namibia's greatest wildlife destinations, where waterholes attract elephants, lions, giraffes, rhino, zebra and countless other species.

We continue towards the rugged Erongo Mountains, known for dramatic granite landscapes and ancient scenery, before reaching Swakopmund, where the Namib Desert meets the Atlantic Ocean.

From the coast, we venture into the spectacular Namib Desert, travelling towards Sossusvlei and Sesriem. Towering red dunes, white salt pans and endless desert landscapes create some of the most iconic scenery in Namibia.

Finally, we make our way towards Mariental, surrounded by the golden landscapes of the Kalahari. With incredible sunsets and endless horizons, it provides a fitting end to an unforgettable journey through Botswana and Namibia.
